

Sample test questions:

1. What is the sociological perspective?
  - a. an examination of the social contexts in which people live
  - b. an examination of social location
  - c. an examination of how groups influence people
  - d. both a and c
  - e. all of the above

2. Tom and Sally were visiting a foreign country and found themselves feeling disgusted at what the local people were doing. However, the local people showed no signs of being disgusted. Tom and Sally were practicing:
  - a. cultural relativism
  - b. ethnocentrism
  - c. neocentrism
  - d. stratification
  - e. none of the above

3. Peter Berger, in his article entitled: "Invitation to Sociology" explains how sociology is, in essence, the analysis of social data.
  - a. true
  - b. false